Learning to Assess Responses

Before you begin to assess your peers' responses, you'll learn how to complete peer assessments by reviewing responses that instructors have already assessed. If you select the same options for the response that the instructor selected, you'll move to the next step. If you don't select the same options, you'll review the response and try again.

The question for this section

Question 1 - Which type of complaints should the Department of Housing Preservation and Development of New York City focus on first?

The response to the prompt above:
